

Madeo studies English with TEHESO

Madeo is a creative and development hub of Brandmaster. In addition to developing a product portfolio focused on brand management, he also specializes in web design, web application development, mobile solutions, and video and game creation.

The company is based in Zlín, but its clients are from all over the world. Therefore, in Madeo, they need not only to be world-class, but also to communicate in English.

Why did you choose TEHESO?

We were looking for a native speaker for Business English lecturers and we discovered TEHESO.

What topics do you address in the classroom?

Business English + General English (competition, workplace stresses, small talks, idioms, phrasal verbs).

How do you evaluate the teaching so far?

After our initial experience, TEHESO seems to be an excellent choice.

Native speakers to study from anywhere

The lecturers that TEHESO works with are native speakers from the United States who specialize in teaching students from non-English speaking countries. Because the classroom is online, it is suitable for any company, regardless of location. So you can study from anywhere - from work, business trips or a home office.
